

CANTOMUNDO & CSER-SPONSORED WEBINAR

"RIGHT HERE IN OUR BODIES:" LATINX POETRY AND DISABILITY JUSTICE

WEDNESDAY MARCH 30, 2022 7PM ET

How have Latinx writers illuminated the ways that the future and the past--the traumas, technologies, and transformative knowledges--live on in our bodies? What new forms of language are Latinx poets creating that shape and decolonize prevailing concepts of disability, justice, and embodiment itself?

This evening of readings and conversation showcases four CantoMundo poets whose work takes part in the literary tradition of and forges new pathways within Latinx disability justice.
