

The Society for German-American Studies will hold its 42nd Annual Symposium in Indianapolis, Indiana, 19–21 April 2018. Theme: “World War I and Its Repercussions for German America: A Centennial Assessment.” We also accept proposals on other aspects of German-American studies. Membership in the Society for German-American Studies is required to participate in the Symposium (Student $15; Regular $30 per year).

One-page abstracts should be submitted by December 15, 2017 to Cora Lee Kluge
clnollen@wisc.edu. (Include SGAS in the subject line.)

Thanks to the Karl J. R. Arndt Publication Fund of SGAS, we may offer four travel grants for graduate students of $750 available on a competitive basis to graduate students whose paper proposals have been accepted for presentation at the SGAS Annual Symposium. The grants are intended to cover registration, meals, travel and accommodations in connection with the Annual Symposium. By accepting a grant, recipients commit themselves to submitting a revised version of their paper by August 1 of the conference year for consideration as a publishable essay in the Yearbook for German American Studies.
