

The International Society for the History of Behavioral and Social Sciences

Conference Date: June 21-24, 2018

Conference Location: Akron University, Akron, Ohio

Submission Due Date: January 15, 2018, 5pm CST

Website: <https://www.uakron.edu/cheiron/>

Papers, posters, symposia/panels, or workshops are invited for the 50th annual meeting of Cheiron: The International Society for the History of Behavioral and Social Sciences. The conference will be held at the University of Akron, in Akron, Ohio, home of the Cummings Center for the History of Psychology, the National Museum of Psychology and the Archives of the History of American Psychology.

Submissions may deal with any aspect of the history of the human, behavioral, and social sciences or related historiographical and methodological issues. For this year's 50th meeting, we particularly encourage submissions that address changes in historiography in the behavioral and social sciences over the past half-century. All submissions should conform to the guidelines listed below.

Please email your proposals to the 2018 Program Chair, Robert Kugelman, at kugelman@udallas.edu.

Guidelines

All papers, posters, and proposed symposia/panels should focus on new and original work, i.e. the main part of the work should not have been published or presented previously at other conferences. To facilitate the peer review and planning process, please provide a separate page that includes: a) title; b) author's name and affiliation; c) author's mail and email address and phone number; d) audio/visual needs. In all types of proposals below, names of authors/presenters should not be indicated anywhere but on the separate cover page for the submission. Papers: Submit a 700-800 word abstract plus references that contains the major sources that inform your work. Presentations at the meeting will be 20-25 minutes in length. Posters: Submit a 300-400 word abstract plus references that contains the major sources that inform your work. Symposia/Panels: Organizer should submit a 250-300 word abstract describing the symposium as a whole and a list of the names and affiliations of the participants. Each participant should submit a 300-600 word abstract plus references that contains the major sources that inform your work. Workshops: Organizer should submit a 250-300 word abstract describing the workshop and, if applicable, a list of the names and affiliations of those participating.
