

Dear Sir and Madame,
Dear Friends of the History

Kossakowski Institute
Lietuvos Kultūros Taryba
The Ministry of Culture of the Republic of Lithuania in collaboration with Department of Lithuanian History at Educational University of Lithuania Department of 19c. History at the University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn have great honor to invite You to the Second International Conference "History is Today. Role and the significance of The Grand Duchy of Lithuania in Europe" that will take place on December 11th, 2017 in Ukmerge (Lithuania).

On the 2nd Day of the Conference , December 12ve, 2017 at 10.00 you are kindly invited to join the exclusive screening of a fullfeature war drama UTTERLY ALONE
a film by Jonas Vaitkus based on the authentic historical material about the Lithuanian resistance movement and a legendary fighter for freedom Juozas Lukša and his family.

We encourage especially the Students of the History departments, their Tutors and all the Audience interested to learn more about the history of Europe from the real heart of Lithuania.

the city located at the intersection of historic trade routes, homeland for a multicultural community. This year's edition of the Conference, as well as previous one, aims at spreading information about the history of Grand Duchy of Lithuania, presenting research, opinions and reflections with regard to the subject. The Conference is intended to bear interdisciplinary attitude on GDL historical spread, i.e. heritage, culture and traditions, language, political, economical and social changes, connections with neighbouring countries, primarily with Poland and its impact into the universal history.

In order to facilitate your participation in the Conference, we will provide you with the live streaming broadcasted directly from the Conference Hall translated into English.

Please watch and comment from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Lithuanian local time on December 11th, 2017 at:
<http://www.kossakowskinstitute.eu/>

Jan Bulak
Organizational Committee of the Conference