

CES SPRING EVENTS

The Rutgers Center for European Studies, 15 Seminary Place, New Brunswick, New Jersey

Thurs., Jan. 24
4:30-6:00 p.m.

Jérôme Baschet (Paris/San Cristobal), “A History of Personhood in the Middle Ages and its Contemporary Relevance,” AB 6050. Co-sponsored with Medieval Studies

Tues., Jan. 29
12:30-2:00 p.m.

Dmitry Nechiporuk (Fulbright), “Russia between the EU and the US: Current Developments of Post-Soviet Society,” AB 6050. Co-sponsored with Dept. of History

Wed., Feb. 13
1:00-4:30 p.m.

Workshop “The Movement of Peoples as Crisis: Political, Economic, and Environmental Causes and Responses,” Nikolas Kosmatopoulos (CES Visiting Fellow), Ethel Brooks, Ileana Nachescu, Sadia Abbas, Toby Jones, Danielle Willard-Kyle, AB 6051. Series Local Talent: Europe at Rutgers. Co-sponsored with Rutgers Global

Fri., Feb. 15
12:00-3:00 p.m.

Global Policy Roundtable on European Politics, “Europe Confronts the Threat of Populism and Illiberal Democracy,” with Eric Davis, Paul Hanebrink, Dan Kelemen, Jan Kubik, and Roland Rich, AB 4052. Co-sponsored with UNMA

Wed., Feb. 20
4:30-6:00 p.m.

Quinn Slobodian (Wellesley), “Homeland Capitalism: Rogue Neoliberals and the Far Right after the Cold War’s End,” Van Dyck 301. Co-sponsored with CCA Working Group on Neoliberalism; Distinguished Speakers in European History

Tues., Feb. 26
4:30-6:00 p.m.

Elizabeth C. Miller (UC Davis), “Down and Out: Victorian Extraction Literature and the Resource Frontier,” Murray 302C. Co-sponsored with Dept. of English; RBSC

Thurs., Mar. 7
12:00-1:30 p.m.

Sergei Erofeev (Rutgers), “The Putin Exodus and Its Implications for Russia and the West,” AB 6050. Series Local Talent: Europe at Rutgers

Fri., Mar. 8
9:30-5:30 p.m.

Graduate Workshop Russian Constructive Criticism, Van Dyck 301. Co-sponsored with Dept. of Russian and East European Languages and Literatures. Pre-registration required

Wed., Mar. 13
1:00-4:30 p.m.

Roundtable “Education in Europe: The Reinscription of Coloniality in Practices, Institutions, and Knowledges,” Peter Appelbaum (Arcadia), Tobias Schulze-Cleven (Rutgers), Ben Justice (Rutgers), and others, AB 6051. Co-sponsored with Dept. of Educational Theory, Policy, and Administration, GSE

Thurs., Mar. 28
4:30-6:00 p.m.

Paul Hanebrink: A Book Celebration. Symposium on A Specter Haunting Europe: The Myth of Judeo-Bolshevism, with Holly Case (Brown), Samuel Moyn (Yale), and Paul Hanebrink (Rutgers), Van Dyck 301. Co-sponsored with Dept. of History

Thurs., Apr. 4
4:30-6:00 p.m.

Panel “Poland, Thirty Years Ago: How Big a Deal was 1989?,” with Malgorzata Mazurek (Columbia), Jan Kubik (Rutgers; UCL), and others, AB 6051.

Tues., Apr. 16
12:00-1:30 p.m.

Selin Bengi Gümrükçü (Rutgers), “From Alterglobalization to Gezi Park Protests: Street Politics in Contemporary Turkey,” AB 6050. Series Local Talent: Europe at Rutgers. Co-sponsored with Dept. of Political Science

For further details and also for notice of meetings and special events of the RBSC/CES Grad Working Group Nation & Empire, write EuropeanStudies@rutgers.edu, to be put on the CES email list. See www.europe.rutgers.edu for all CES events—and other campus events related to Europe.

For more info, contact:
CES Academic Director
Belinda Davis
(bedavis@rutgers.edu)

CES Administrative Director
Tatianna Pasley-Smith
(pasleytm@rutgers.edu).