

FRANCE'S FIFTH REPUBLIC: ORIGINS AND LEGACIES

Amidst the gala commemorations of "68," 2018 also marks the sixtieth anniversary of the Fifth Republic, a constitutional regime issued from a coup d'état and forged in colonial war. This conference is an occasion to reflect on the turbulent origins of the present-day French Republic as well as the legacies of its foundation, from the crisis of May 1958 to the institutions that continue to govern France more than half a century later.

Featuring

Grey Anderson, Adam Tooze, Nadia Urbinati, Delphine Dulong, Herrick Chapman, Emmanuelle
Saada, Megan Brown, Todd Shepard, Kalinka
Courtois, & Luca Provenzano

More details at bit.ly/FifthRepublic

Friday, October 5, 2018, 2:30 - 6:30pm

Fayerweather Room 411, Columbia University

Sponsored by the European Institute, the Alliance Program, the Department of History, and the Maison Française