

This workshop was organized as part of a partnership between the Department of History of Columbia University and the Faculty of History at the University of Cambridge.

Night Histories and Urban Temporalities

Friday, 13 May 2022

9 am in New York

2 pm in Cambridge

5 pm in Istanbul

7:30 pm in Mumbai

Register for Zoom Here

For all inquiries please contact
Amy Chazkel ac2227@columbia.edu

Ruth Watson, University of Cambridge, moderator

Amy Chazkel, Columbia University, "History of the Urban Nighttime: A View from Nineteenth-Century Rio de Janeiro"

Yasemin Akçagüner, Columbia University, "When the Clock Strikes Sunset: Navigating Urban Time in Late Ottoman Istanbul"

Sohini Chattopadhyay, Columbia University, "Limiting Space and Time: The Crematorium and Pauper Deaths in Colonial Bombay and Calcutta"

Zachary Fleishman, University of Cambridge, "Exploring the Potentials of a History of the Night in South Africa, 1860s-2000s"

Siyabonga Njica, University of Cambridge, "'I was literally raised inside a cinema': Bloke Modisane's 'Nite Life' Film Columns in Golden City Post, 1957-1958"

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
@COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY