

Education

Skidmore College September 2014 – May 2018 Saratoga Springs, NY

Bachelor of Arts, double major in Economics and Mathematics

Cumulative GPA: 3.793 GPA of Mathematics: 3.951 GPA of Economics :3.889

Selected Coursework:

Mathematics: Linear Algebra, Multivariable Calculus, Mathematical Reasoning and Discrete Structures, Abstract Algebra, Introduction to Real Analysis, Sports and Statistics, Introduction to Topology, Mathematical Economics

Economics: Microeconomics Theory, Macroeconomics Theory, Industrial Organization, Mathematical Economics, Applied Econometrics

Columbia University August 2018 – Present New York, NY

Candidate of Master of Arts in Economics

Experience

Research Assistant for Professor Qi Ge, Department of Economics, Skidmore College (January 2017 -- Present)

- Collect data for a number of applied economics projects
- Conduct literature reviews for a number of applied economics projects
- Use R and Stata to perform regressions and event study methods on data

General Assistant in China Construction Bank, Fuzhou Chengbei Branch, International Section (May 2016 – August 2016)

- Visited several firms and collected information for credit evaluation
- Prepared several million dollars' worth credit loan and letter of credit contracts
- In charge of daily currency change for over ten firms

Awards

Member of Phi Beta Kappa, Pi Mu Epsilon, and Omicron Delta Epsilon

Magna Cum Laude, Skidmore College Dean's Honor List, Department honors in Economics

Skills

Programming knowledge of Java, R, Latex, and Stata

Proficient in Microsoft Excel

Yuanding Chen

(518) 423-1390 yc3531@columbia.edu

Languages: Chinese (native), English (proficient), French (elementary)