

ECONOMIC RECOVERY POLICY HACKATHON

ROOSEVELT @ COLUMBIA

FEBRUARY 26-28, 2021

REGISTER TO COMPETE VIRTUALLY AT TINYURL.COM/ROOSHACKATHON2021

WE HAVE A VACCINE AND A NEW PRESIDENT.

WRITE YOUR IDEAS FOR OUR RECOVERY.

If you have questions or would like to sponsor or partner with us,
please email
[roosevelteboard
@columbia.edu](mailto:roosevelteboard@columbia.edu)

3 POLICY TRACKS

Write holistic economic policy for implementation at the U.S. urban, U.S. rural, or global level.

WORLD CLASS MENTORS & WORKSHOPS

Receive mentorship, feedback, and participate in workshops led by Columbia faculty and policy experts.

WIN AWARDS & GET PUBLISHED

Awards will be given to the top policy memo in each track. Winning memos will be published on the website of the Columbia Roosevelt Institute at <http://rooseveltatcolumbia.com/>

NO EXPERIENCE OR TEAMS NEEDED

Registration open to college & graduate students and young professionals. No prior policy, coding, or other experience required. Participants may register with a team of up to 4 members or be assigned to one.

ABOUT THE ROOSEVELT INSTITUTE @ COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

The Roosevelt Institute @ Columbia University is a progressive, nonpartisan, student-run think tank associated with the broader Roosevelt National Network. We educate and engage students through weekly discussions and spearhead policy initiatives at the campus and city level.